O R D E R:

In the letter 3rd read above, the Director of Medical Education, Hyderabad has stated that Dr. M. Adi Lakshmi, DGO, formerly CAS/CMO, Gandhi Medical College Secunderabad was selected for prosecuting PG in MD (RT) at Osmania Medical College, Hyderabad and she has joined in the said course on 6.7.2006 as an in-service candidate; that as per the existing rules she has sanctioned P.G. deputation for one year only as she was already done DGO as service P.G. in the year 1995-1997 and sanctioned P.G. deputation for two years for the same course. She has also stated that the individual has requested to extend her deputation period for the remaining period of 2 years for completion of P.G. course with pay and allowances.

2. The DME has further stated that the MD (RT) is a scarce subject and sufficient doctors are not available in the department and the cadre strength of Asst. Prof. of Radiotherapy in all Government Medical Colleges is 21 and Tutor post is one only; that at present only 16 qualified doctors are working and 6 vacancies are available due to lack of qualified doctors in this specialty, and requested the Government to issue necessary orders on the request of the individual.

3. The Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby extend the remaining period of deputation for two years to Dr. M. Adi Lakshmi, DGO, formerly CAS/CMO, Gandhi Medical College Secunderabad, in service P.G. in M.D. (RT) at Osmania Medical College, Hyderabad as a special case, duly relaxing the sub-rule (XII) of rule 11 of A.P. Medical Colleges (Admission to Post Graduate Medical Courses) Rules 1997 issued in the G.Os. 1st and 2nd read above, since it is a scarce specialty and sufficient doctors are not available in the Department.

4. The extension of the period of deputation ordered above shall be subject to the condition that she should execute a bond in the prescribed pro-forma for Rs.20.00 lakhs (Rupees twenty lakhs only) that she would serve the Government of Andhra Pradesh for a period of 5 years after completion of the said course as per the existing rules. In the event of her leaving the studies in mid-term or in case of her failure to serve the Government for the stipulated period of 5 years after completion of the course, she has to pay the bond amount to Government, including the salary and allowances received till then.

5. The Director of Medical Education, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary action accordingly.
